Description

This apartment is situated in a privileged area of the City of Tomar, offering a unique combination of modern comfort and historic charm. It features three suites with fitted wardrobes, a spacious living room with an electric fireplace, a fully equipped kitchen, and a service bathroom. The apartment also includes pre-installation for air conditioning, built-in lighting, and three parking spaces in the basement.

Located in the heart of the city, just steps away from the UNESCO-listed Convent of Christ, Tomar offers a rich historical backdrop. Known for its Templar history and stunning medieval architecture, the city provides a unique living experience with easy access to a variety of shops, restaurants, and public services. The vibrant town center offers a blend of modern amenities and historical charm, making it a perfect location for those who appreciate both convenience and heritage. Additionally, parking is made easy in this area, making everyday living even more convenient.
