Features

This traditional two-storey property offers great potential and is set in a peaceful, scenic location only 10 minutes from Ferreira do Zêzere and 15 minutes from the historic town of Tomar.

The house features a spacious terrace and is arranged as follows:

First Floor: A cosy living room, kitchen, and two bedrooms filled with natural light.

Ground Floor: Multiple storage rooms and a traditional wine cellar full of character.

The property also includes a plot of land ideal for gardening, relaxing, or even future development.

Ferreira do Zêzere is a welcoming riverside town known for its natural beauty, local markets, and access to the stunning Castelo do Bode lake — perfect for water sports and leisure activities. It offers a range of essential services, shops, cafes, and restaurants, making it a convenient and pleasant place to live year-round or seasonally.

With its quiet setting and proximity to local amenities, this is a fantastic opportunity to restore and personalise a charming Portuguese countryside home.
