Description

Are you looking for a property just a few kilometres from Tomar with the potential to become your dream home? Look no further! It is a country house with 2 bedrooms + 1 interior, a living room and kitchen. Currently there is no toilet. Through the interior stairs you reach the lower floor where there is the possibility of using it for the creation of a cellar or storage. Outside the property there is a not very large plot of land, large enough to grow your own food. There are some olive trees and a well, for easy maintenance of the land.

Additionally, there are two annexes that can easily be transformed into a garage or warehouse to support agriculture. In the past, the house has already been connected to electricity and water to the public network and therefore it will be easier to connect them. Property located in a quiet village as well as the road that passes in front.

Located about 5.5kms from the city of Tomar, where you will find all kinds of public services and so well known for the Convent of Christ, classified as a World Heritage Site. Schedule your visit now, and come and experience all the surroundings, where this property is located.
