The open-plan kitchen, dining and living area creates a bright, welcoming heart of the home. The kitchen includes:

Lower Floor

Accessed from the patio terrace, the lower floor offers exceptional flexibility.

The adjoining living room is currently used as a dance and yoga studio and features:

- Reinforced ceiling beam suitable for aerial yoga, climbing rope or hammock installation
- Wood-burning stove
- Windows overlooking the carport and barbecue area

Bedrooms

Two generous guest bedrooms each offer built-in wardrobes and excellent storage.

Development Potential

The property's adaptable layout offers exciting possibilities.

Should the current office remain as a dedicated workspace, the lower floor can still function as an independent two-bedroom apartment by reinstalling a kitchen.

Alternatively, the non-load-bearing wall between the adegas and the larger bedroom could be removed to create a spacious kitchen while retaining a comfortable second bedroom, providing an attractive self-contained guest or rental apartment.

Outdoor Living

The west-facing terrace extends directly from the main living area and provides the perfect setting for outdoor dining while enjoying spectacular sunset and countryside views.

An external staircase leads to the beautifully landscaped gardens, where broad pergola-covered steps descend to a generous meadow bordered by mature hedging for privacy.

The garden enjoys uninterrupted panoramic hilltop views and includes a wonderful variety of established fruit trees, including:

- 6x Olive trees
- Citrus (orange, lemon, lime & tangerine)
- Plum (yellow and red)
- Cherry
- Fig

A mature herb garden complements the planting, while a rear gate provides direct access to the quiet village lane. At the far end of the garden is a swing and a charming outbuilding formerly used as a chicken coop.

The lower garden features a superb covered entertaining area complete with:

- Built-in barbecue
