Description

Charming small farm located in a quiet environment, just 4 km from Vila do Rei, ideal for those looking for quality of life in the middle of nature.

The property consists of two country houses and a storage room, set in a setting with unobstructed views.

The main house, already recovered from pink schist stone, is spread over two floors. On the ground floor there is a large multifunctional space and a bathroom with outdoor access. On the ground floor there are two living rooms — one of them equipped with a wood burning stove —, a kitchen with access to an attic with potential for use, three bedrooms, a bathroom and a pleasant shed outside.

The second house, also made of pink schist stone, is in the recovery phase, offering an excellent opportunity for customisation, with the potential to become a T3 + T0 with a mezzanine.

The land surrounding the houses has about 2,000 m², with several trees, plants and shrubs, creating a true natural refuge. The property also has a well and spring, ideal for those who value sustainability and autonomy.
